

EriAm Sisters

featuring: Haben Abraham

The Eritrean American Pop Divas

Who are The EriAm Sisters?

The music's newest darling, Haben Abraham (11), makes up 1/3 of the progressively POPular new group EriAm, the other 2/3's are none other than her equally talented and beautiful sisters Salina (13) and Lianda (15). "EriAm" stands for Eritrean-American; the talented and diverse trio wanted a name that would highlight the uniqueness of their cultural makeup and international aspect of their journey.

The EriAm sisters come from a musically diverse family. Their father, Mulugheta Abraham, is an engineer for the Boeing Company and plays various instruments. Their mother, Tiblets Abraham also loves music and dancing. Both parents come from Eritrea, a small country on the eastern coast of Africa bordering Ethiopia and Sudan. In 1983, they moved to Holland where her two sisters, Lianda and Salina were born. In 1996, they moved to the US where Haben was born a year later.

Since the age of 2, the sisters have been belting out songs in more than one language (they sang in English, Dutch, and their native Tigrinia). It wasn't until Haben was 7 that her musical gifts were noticed by her music teacher. She was a brilliant singer and actor and performed with no outside pressure. A star was born! Haben is much like any normal young girl. She loves to ice skate, swim, take jazz dance lessons, and is a seasoned artist. Beyond all that, Haben possesses a voice that is so controlled and mature... you would think your ears were playing tricks on your eyes.

Haben and her sisters have shared their talent with audiences across the West Coast. They wow crowds with their stage presence and extraordinary performances. Haben is very happy that her sisters share the same musical talents as she. "My sisters are the key to my success," says Haben. "We work perfectly together and have even gave nicknames for each other,

I am the VISION, Lianda is the COMPASSION and Salina is the DETERMINATION". Haben and her sisters are diligent, they write their songs and choreograph their moves meticulously. The sisters are working on their first project with some of the most respected producers like, Andrew Lane (High School Musical), John Silva, Kevin Gardner (E-40), Nicholas Cooper and DJ Freestyle who is the official DJ of Timbaland and Justin Timberlake.

"We want to be the next Destiny Child", proclaims Seattle's little darling. Big shoes to fill for anyone, but Haben and her sisters are determined and on the right track. Their confidence level and natural desire to sing is such that they share their gift for anyone who wants to enjoy their voice! Their organic enthusiasm has prompted the parents to allow the sisters to perform at concerts, talent shows, stadiums, festivals and corporate fundraising events to pursue their dream of becoming professional singers. EriAm's fan-base is rapidly growing and has viewed their recorded performances and profile over 1,000,000 times on the popular YouTube.com and Myspace.com websites.

Although the big voices of the little ladies readily takes on the challenging works of mega divas such as; Celine Dion, Mariah Carey, and Beyonce, they are extremely humble and eager to learn! One thing is certain; the EriAm Sisters have begun to soar and are destined to bling.

Their family stands fully behind their desire to excel in the entertainment industry. At the same time, they want to make sure they provide all the ingredients that the girls need to become good citizens and well rounded young ladies!

All About EriAm

EriAm Sisters consist of Salina, Lianda and Haben Abraham. "EriAm Sisters" stands for Eritrean-American; the talented and diverse trio wanted a name that would highlight the uniqueness of their cultural makeup and international aspect of their journey.

For the past 3 years the gorgeous girls have collectively and individually wowed crowds with their stage presence and POPSTAR potential! The Abraham girls are diligent in their schoolwork and passionate about their music careers. Aside from keeping up with their chores and homework; Lianda, Salina and Haben spends countless hours writing songs, practicing choreography, playing the piano and keeping in touch with their fans and friends on their popular Myspace and YouTube profiles!

Now, they have completed their first CD that contains 14 songs.

"My sisters are the key to my success," says Haben. "If it wasn't for them I don't think I could be singing at competitions or even try for a more serious adventure. I love singing with my sisters!"

Salina: "Making new songs with my sisters and recording our CD with John Silva, Kevin Gardner, Andrew Lane and DJ Freestyle was a lot of fun"

The most exciting moment was when I met Omarion in LA" says Haben

Lianda: "Our favorite song is NO MORE GAMES which we wrote about sisterhood"

Salina: "The song MEAN GIRL is simply amazing and every teenager loves it"

The Sisters Live & Sing in Harmony

Haben grew up playing, dancing and singing with her sisters. Although she has performed many times as a solo singer, she prefers to sing and perform with her sisters. The working relationship with her sisters is nurtured for as long as they can remember each other. The singing power of this combined package is intensely more than the sum of each individual talent.

EriAm

Eritrean American Sisters

The Eritrean American Pop Divas have Platinum Potential!

Much like the contagiously popular Hannah Montana and Raven Simone, Haben and her sisters possess a Pop Star magnetism that will easily captivate the coveted Disney and Nickelodeon demographic, and the vocal voracity reminiscent of younger versions of platinum princesses; 'Alicia Keys and Beyonce'.

Work Ethic and Professionalism

The work ethic and seriousness with which the sisters have recorded the more than 14 songs in the studio has simply astonished the seasoned professionals.

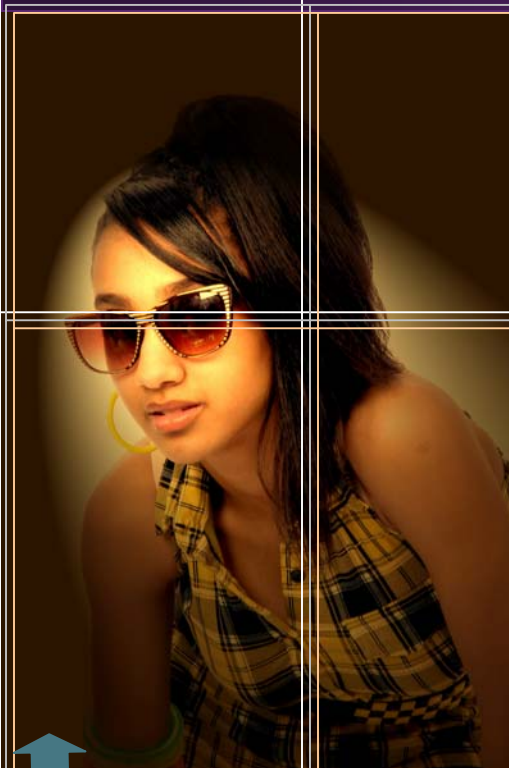

- "The EriAm project was like working with adult professionals" John Silva
- "There are not many 10 year old girls with such an amazing talent" DJ Freestyle.
- "The song 'No more' shows how talented song writers these girls are" Robert Cann.
- "It is truly exceptional to have three powerful lead singers form a single family" Kevin Gardner
- "I can't wait to work on the second CD, I miss the studio" Haben Abraham

The CD Project

EriAm has just completed their freshman project, produced by some of the West Coast hottest producers; John Silva of High Powered Entertainment, Andrew Lane (DrewRight Music) & Kevin Gardner. The album features original songs by some of the country's most talented writers and showcases the talented EriAm Sisters.

The EriAm Sisters with Vision, Compassion and Determination!

About Lianda (Compassion)

My Name Means: "Lianda" symbolizes love in Greek.

My Culture: I am very proud of my diverse background because it makes me see things from different perspective...

My Birthday: I was born July 13, 1993. I usually spend my birthday with my friends and family. The bigger the crowd the better!

My Favorite Entertainers: I love 50Cent, Whitney Houston, Christina Aguilera and Mariah Carey. I also enjoy my rabbit Tommy!

My Favorite Activities: I love to dance, sing and ice skate. I also enjoy gymnastics and swimming. Writing songs with my sisters is another enjoyable activity.

My Dream Come True: Performing and sharing my passion for singing all over the world.

About Salina (Determination)

My Name Means: Although my name is a common name, in Eritrea my name symbolizes steadfastness and determination.

My Culture: I like the strict environment we grew up in since it made me respect people. It made me see people for who they are not for who they are ethnically associated with...

My Birthday: I was born Oct 11, 1994. Unlike my sister Lianda, I tend to keep my birthday celebrations a bit smaller.

My Favorite Entertainers: I love Alicia Keys & Whitney Houston.

My Favorite Activities: I enjoy dancing, performing and writing. I like challenges that push my limits regardless how hard I have to work for it.

My Dream Come True: I temporarily was a member of another girl band but decided to stick with my sisters. So my dream is to

About Haben (Vision)

My Name Means: Haben is a traditional Eritrean name that means "Pride" it is pronounced; Hay-Bin.

My Culture: I am very proud of my diverse background. It is a mix of African, European and American.

My Birthday: I was born on Aug 6, 1997. I spend my birthday with friends and family. The best gift I ever got was a Karaoke.

My Favorite Entertainers: I love Mariah Carey, Celine Dion, & Whitney Houston. But my older sisters Salina and Lianda are my favorite singers!

My Favorite Activities: I really enjoy ice scating, dancing, drawing and writing songs. I also love to cook.

My Dream Come True: Performing for people, sharing my passion for singing all over the world. I also want to help orphaned kids.
